Wheat Hits Dollar on Minneapolis Market

HERALDED REACTION CLIPS OFF ONE CENT ON OTHER MARKETS

CHICAGO AND WINNIPEG EXCHANGES SHOW MOVEMENT STILL STRONG IN TRADING

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—No. 1 choice amber durum wheat hit $1 a bushel today in the Minneapolis cash market. The close for yesterday's trading was 89.5 to 99.5 cents and today the market demand forced the trading to a dollar a bushel. No. 1 choice amber durum is one of the finest grades of wheat obtainable and only a small quantity is sold on the cash market here.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—A reaction in the boom of wheat prices clipped off one cent today from the closing figures established at record heights for the season yesterday.

It was a development predicted by

Moscow, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—The Soviet Union wheat crop this year will be as great or greater than in 1930, officials declared today, but they admitted total exports to foreign countries undoubtedly would be less than last year.

Viacheslav Molotov, president of the council of peoples commissars, said experts and published wheat had been damaged with a loss of several hundred million pounds for grain.

"Nevertheless, the total harvest will not be less than in 1930," Molotov declared, claiming the winter sowings and the acreage to be sowed next spring would exceed the total for 1931.

Grain men and many were surprised that extremely heavy profit taking by those who bought wheat when it was less than 50 cents a bushel and are selling it now at around 65 cents did not force the price down more drastically.

The closing figures on the Chicago board of trade today were: December wheat, 62 cents; March, 65½; May 66½; and July 67½, one cent lower in each instance than the closing prices yesterday.

Wheat was still 19 cents or so higher than the all-time low price level reached last October 5 when the price slumped the lowest it had been since Elizabeth was queen of England.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Late trading recovered much of the losses which had ranged up to more than 4 cents in some months on the Winnipeg grain exchange today.

Sensational rises of more than 2 cents a bushel were followed an hour and a half after the trading opened with profit taking which forced prices down more than 4 cents. Closing prices were 1½ to 1½ cents lower than yesterday's close.

Export business and other scattered support of an undetermined nature brought prices up from bottom levels.

Closing prices were:
November 68½, down 1½;
December 68½, down 1½;
May 72 to 72½, down 1½.

Clara City, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Attempting to pose as farmers in sheep lined coats and overalls, four bank robbers today looted the Citizens State Bank of Clara City of $10,000 in currency and escaped eastward.

The men appeared suddenly in the bank and drew revolvers. Our officers and two customers in the bank counted three bandits in the bank and another at the wheel of a large Hupmobile sedan outside the institution, they said.

AMASSES MILLIONS IN RISING WHEAT MARKET; STARTED WITH $1,000 STAKE

New York, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Rising wheat prices that mean bread and butter to American farmers are adding millions of dollars to the riches of Arthur W. Cutten who made $15,000,000 in $2 wheat back in 1925, Wall Street reported today.

Cutten, who at that time bought and controlled more wheat than ever under control of one man, predicts the present rise will continue until wheat touches $1, those some reports declared.

Persons believed to know of Cutten's actual operations, today said he personally was directing the buying in the present market.

The Wall Street reports of Cutten's activities recall the romantic tales of his conquests in the corn, wheat, and security markets of New York and Chicago since 1924.

That year he bought corn. In mid-summer he dragged a million and a half as his share of the profits.

Less than a year later he was credited with piling up profits of from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 in wheat. Certain it is that he paid Chicago's highest income tax, $450,000, chiefly earnings from corn and wheat transactions.

And in 1926 he entered Wall Street to buy stocks. He preached optimism. That year, the next, the next and the next. And when he had weathered the

Agriculture Laying Foundation for Recovery, Williams Believes

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—American agriculture is building a foundation for the return of prosperity, Carl Williams, member of the Federal Farm board, said today.

Grain prices are definitely on an upward trend, Williams, discussing the feeling of jubilation in the west, said he felt the increased prices "completely justified."

"Cotton usually leads the way out of depressions," Williams said. "At present, wheat seems to have gotten ahead of it. The signs of a real upturn for the improvement of all industry will, I believe, come from cotton."

"The building up of consumption will tell the story several months in advance. Seventy per cent of American cotton goes into domestic industries and when the industries start humming again prosperity is only a short distance away."

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Grain men and millers today predicted that if the Federal Farm board, "the only bearish factor," does not make itself felt in the market, grain prices will continue to rise under the influence of present bullish tendencies.

Although some traders believed that the present advance has been too rapid and that a reaction will result, others said that if the bullish factors continue the advance will get underway again.

"The market has the most cheerful aspect this year," H. E. Yantis, of the Northwestern Miller, trade publication, said.

Cotton has improved in price about $8 a bale in recent weeks. This has been due more to arrangements for holding off the market some of the bumper 1931 crop than to increased consumption. However, every indication is that consumption will pick up soon both at home and abroad.

The agricultural situation has improved tremendously since summer, when the farming outlook was clouded by the lowest prices in history and a production which had outdistanced consumption.

The collapse of the Russian wheat exporting plan until Jan. 1 at least has given the United States more orders than it otherwise would have had. Bad weather in France and adverse conditions in other importing countries have combined to enlarge America's market.

With this brisk demand springing up, the surpluses of wheat and cotton held by the farm board have assumed less menacing proportions.

FARIBAULT SLASHES LEVY SAVING $45000 IN TAXES NEXT YEAR

ADHERES TO DEMAND OF 1500 FARMERS FOR RELIEF FROM TAXATION

Blue Earth, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—In response to demands by more than 1,500 farmers, the Faribault county board of commissioners today has slashed off $45,000 from its 1932 budget.

By the board's action, the county agent, county nurse, weed inspectors and some contributions to the road and bridge fund were eliminated for next year. The county commissioners, however, refused to dismiss the assistant superintendent of schools and to cut the tax rate for the road and bridge fund as much as the farmers had demanded.

The protest was organized by the Faribault County Taxpayers' association. D. D. Murphy of Blue Earth is president of the organization.

Murphy expressed satisfaction with the county commissioners' action, saying that approximately $55,000 would be saved for taxpayers the next year when villages, townships and school districts had been brought in line with the trend to help the farmers through tax reduction.

The Faribault county board of commissioners adopted a resolution favoring state income tax legislation as a replacement tax.

Specific amounts saved by the commissioners' action follow:
Saving on contributions to road and bridge fund, $38,000. Elimination of county agent and home demonstrator, $3,300. Elimination of weed inspectors, $2,400. Dismissal of county nurse, $1,200.

The reduction on contributions to the road and bridge fund was made by cutting the tax rate from 2 1/4 mills to 1 1/4 mills.

The action by the Faribault county commissioners was the third attempt by farmers of various sections of Minnesota to obtain tax relief.

At the request of farmers in drought stricken Big Stone county, the commissioners there adopted a "moratorium" on tax penalties, subject to approval of the state tax commissioners, which normally would have gone into effect Nov. 1. The farmers in Polk county met at Crookston and adopted a resolution calling on Gov. Olson to call a special session of the legislature to aid them.

FIRE MARSHALS WHO RESIGNED IN JULY TO LEAVE ON NOV. 15

INCLUDED ARE GEORGE MAGNUSON, ST. CLOUD, WILLIAM TOURTILLOT, LITTLE FALLS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Four deputy state fire marshals who resigned last July will leave the state service Nov. 15, Garfield Brown, state insurance commissioner, announced today.

Resignations of the four, together with resignations of three others who previously left the state service were asked following charges by State Controller E. J. Pearlove that the men had padded expense accounts.

All of the new men have been on duty for several weeks, Brown said, but the four former employees were retained to instruct the new men. The four who will leave service this month are Harry Chance, Charles Gehrke and Robert J. Martin, Minneapolis, and C. E. Llewellyn, St. Paul. The three who left the service earlier were George Magnuson, St. Cloud; Arthur O'Dea, Duluth, and William Tourtillot, Little Falls.

ASK RIGHT TO PROVE THAT VALUABLE ORE BODIES EXIST IN AND NEAR CITY

That the immediate surroundings of Brainerd and even property within Brainerd abounds in valuable mineral fields, was the claim made by Charles E. and Fred Britton, Brainerd prospectors, who appealed to the city council last night for the right and assistance to sink a shaft on the Holland property to prove its worth as a rich bed of iron, silver, copper, gold and zinc.

Holland Property in Mind
The Holland property, bequeathed to the city, is located north of Oak street and in the east limits of the city.

The brothers were enthusiastic in their claims that the sinking of a shaft would locate valuable deposits of ore on the property that would net fine financial returns to the city in the way of royalties.

Charles Britton who discovered valuable ore veins in Montana and who will remain in Brainerd over the winter before returning to the strike in Montana offered his assistance in locating the purported ore on the Holland property.

"No mining concern today is willing to enter property without some assurance of the value of the property. If a shaft can be sunk to prove that quality ore exists with indications of quantity then it would be little trouble in interesting mining companies to accept a lease and drill the property," Britton asserted.

The Britton brothers proposed the raising of funds by subscription to undertake the work of sinking a shaft.

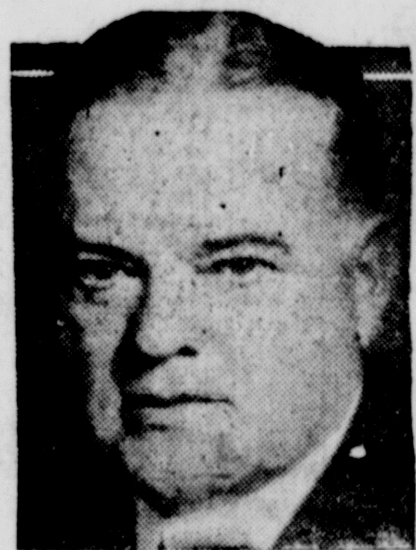

The council listened to the proposal and referred the matter to the property committee to report to the next meeting.

PROBE NAVY DEPARTMENT DATA

Principals Involved in Navy League Blast

William Howard Gardiner, left, president of the Navy League, has been asked by President Hoover, right, to make a public correction of his misstatements and an apology in connection with his recent charges that the administration was "restricting, reducing and starving" the United States Navy. The president last night announced the personnel of an investigating committee to probe the charges.

PRESIDENT NAMES UNIT TO INVESTIGATE LEAGUE'S CHARGES

DUTY WILL BE TO ASCERTAIN FROM RECORDS TRUTH OF GARDINER'S ASSERTIONS

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—A quiet and wholly factual investigation of the Navy league's "abysmal ignorance"

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Senator Reed, Rep. Pa., and delegate to the London naval conference, came to President Hoover's defense today by charging that the Navy league has been "wholly unfair" to Mr. Hoover.

"No loyal American should speak in that way of any president," Reed said of the Navy league chief's "abysmal ignorance" charge.

charges against President Hoover appeared in prospect today.

Mr. Hoover narrowed the field of inquiry to such matters "as may be readily determined from departmental records" in announcing the personnel of his committee last night.

Restricted Committee

The personnel of the committee is such as to assure the restrictions desired by the president. It includes: Hugh Rodman, retired admiral, Spanish war veteran, holder of many decorations, former commander of the Pacific fleet (1919) who conferred with Mr. Hoover before his appointment.

John Hays Hammond, chairman of the coal investigating committee under the Harding administration and president of the National League of Republican Clubs, originally a mining engineer.

Elio Wadsworth, an overseer of Harvard university, former assistant secretary of treasury, and the only member of the commission whose home (Boston, Mass.) is outside of Washington.

Earnest Lee Jancke, assistant secretary of navy and close friend and admirer of Mr. Hoover.

William R. Castle, Jr., assistant secretary of state, also a confidant of the president.

Hammond, Wadsworth and Jancke were named as representatives of the Navy league, according to Theodore Joslin, presidential publicity secretary.

Their duty will be to ascertain from the records the truth concerning the assertions of William Howard Gardiner, president of the Navy league. Gardiner issued a pamphlet statement last Wednesday in which he charged that the president's old proposal to immunize food supplies in times of war showed "abysmal ignorance."

PETITIONS COURT FOR GRAND JURY

COUNTY ATTORNEY SULLIVAN ASKS SESSION TO START NOVEMBER 9

County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan stated today he proposed to petition Judge Alfred L. Thwing in district court this afternoon for permission to call a grand jury here November 9.

"I have several matters to bring before a grand jury," Sullivan said.

Civil cases before a jury will begin in district court tomorrow.

Defendant in Britton Suit

C. A. Klunk, above, is defendant in the $50,000 libel suit being prosecuted at Toledo by Nan Britton following the sale of the book, "The Answer to The President's Daughter," in Klunk's hotel. Miss Britton claims that the book harmed her reputation in answering the claim she made in her book "The President's Daughter," that the late President Warren G. Harding was the father of her child.

CREEK DIVERSION SANCTIONED BY GAME CLUB HERE

WOULD RAISE LEVELS IN SEVERAL LAKES; CLUB ADOPTS BIG PROGRAM

Choosing to remain an independent organization with its aims and purposes solely for the propagation and protection of Minnesota game and fish of first instance in the Brainerd Lake Region, members of the Crow Wing Protective Club pledged active support to a prodigious program at its annual meeting last night in the Brainerd Bottling Works offices.

Protest Short Duck Season

High lights of the meeting included: Sanction of the petition and move underway by lake shore property owners to divert the course of Pelican Creek so that the water will flow through and raise the waters of Pelican, Marquette, Louie, Perch, Edwards, Long, Round and Quill lakes.

Protest of the limiting of the duck season to 30 days thus preventing future legislation of similar nature.

Protest against closing of Long Lake, branch of Bay Lake because of so called tame fish but not objecting to reservation of a portion of the lake for the protection of so called tame fish.

Application to the State Game and Fish Department for 200 pheasants and 100 Hungarian partridge.

Ask Special Game District

Motion recommending to the State Game and Fish Department the establishment of a new district known as the Gull Lake Chain District and the appointment of a game warden to patrol the district exclusively.

Motion that the club urge the department to establish more fish hatcheries in Crow Wing county.

Authorization of the reduction of membership fees and the conducting of a membership drive.

Weideman Heads Club

Officers of the club were reelected for another year. They are: President, A. A. Weideman; vice president, J. F. Cibazar; secretary-treasurer, Frank G. Hall; field secretary, A. P. Cardie.

Copies of the protest by the club against a short duck season were ordered sent to the State Game and Fish Department, The State Agricultural Department and Congressman Harold Knutson.

Diversion to Cost $10,000

The movement underway to change the course of Pelican creek calls for an estimated expenditure of close to $10,000. Funds for this work will be raised through subscription by property owners in the lakes benefited. Before the work can be done sanction must be received by the War Department. The creek at present unloads in Pine River an din town flows into the Mississippi river.

The club adopted a resolution urging the State Game and Fish Department to furnish free copies of "Finn: Feathers and Furs" to rural schools of the county, a list of schools and addresses to be furnished by the club.

Plan Membership Drive

The club went on record asking the cooperation of the entire city in its move to enlarge the membership. The club now has 150 members.

A motion of thanks was expressed to Deputy Game Warden A. P. Cardie for his faithful and efficient work in behalf of the protection of game and fish.

J. F. Cibazar was thanked for the use of his building for the meeting and for his invitation allowing use of the building for future gatherings.

BALLOTING TODAY MAY DETERMINE CONTROL OF HOUSE

LINEUP NOW STANDS DEMOCRATS 214; REPUBLICANS 213; FARMER-LABORITE 1

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Voters went to the polls in scattered localities today to register decisions that may determine which party is to control the house of representatives next month.

Jouett Shouse, chairman of the democratic national executive committee, predicts the democrats will arrive for the meeting of congress December 7 in numerical control.

The lineup now stands democrats 214; republicans, 213; farmer-labor, 1; vacancies, 7. Five vacancies are to be filled in today's elections. One in New Jersey will be filled December 1, a week before congress meets. The remaining one in New Hampshire will be filled in January. In several contests the Hoover administration is an issue.

Two major figures in the democratic party, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt and former Governor Alfred E. Smith, have come into collision over a constitutional amendment in New York state. It concerns a $200,000,000 11-year reforestation program, backed by Roosevelt and both political parties. Smith has been speaking strongly against it. Though Smith denies a break with Roosevelt, they have joined in a test of strength which may have important bearing on Roosevelt's presidential chances.

Congressional seats are being filled today in the following districts:
Ohio, first—Old district of the late Nicholas Longworth, doubtful; 20th—probably democratic.
Michigan, eighth—Doubtful.
Pennsylvania, second—Probably republican.
New York, seventh—Probably democratic.

Governors will be elected in New Jersey, Mississippi, where the democratic candidate, Mike Conner, has no opposition, and Kentucky, which will not report returns under its law for another day or two.

New Jersey candidates are republican, David Baird, Jr., and former Governor Harry A. Moore, democrat. Should the latter win he may become a favorite on presidential aspirant. Virginia and Kentucky are electing legislatures and New York is electing a new assembly with a democratic gain of only six votes needed to switch control. Mayors are being elected in Philadelphia, Columbus, Memphis, Detroit, Salt Lake, San Francisco, and other cities.

TAKE HUMAN FLY FOR QUESTIONING IN THE MENOMINEE HOLDUP

"BABE" WHITE SAID BY CITIZENS TO HAVE SHOOK HANDS WITH DEAD BANDIT

Portage, Wis., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—"Babe" White, Chicago, for 15 years a human fly, vowed today that in the future he will be more careful about whom he shakes hands with before beginning his spectacular climb up the side of a building.

White explained that it is his custom to shake hands with the nearest spectator before starting his ascent. Recently he gave an exhibition at Menominee. Citizens said he shook hands with a stranger, later identified as Frank Weber, a bandit killed in the holdup of a bank there the next day. Police sought White later for questioning concerning his acquaintance with Weber, but he had departed.

As White prepared to climb the side of a hotel building here yesterday, Chief of Police T. F. Curry seized both his hands—placed handcuffs on his wrists.

White is going to have to explain his handshaking custom to the satisfaction of Menominee authorities today.

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Back trails leading to the acquaintance of Walter Twining, 25, Hibbing, and Frank Webber, Minneapolis, who was shot down while escaping from a hold-up of the Kraft State Bank of Menominee, Wis., recently were followed today by Sheriff Emil Erickson.

One deputy investigated the association between the two men in Minneapolis where police found Webber's clothing and belongings in a garage rented by Twining for his automobile.

BULLETIN!

Tokio, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Forces under Gen. Chang Hsueh-Liang, Manchurian dictator, defeated the independent army of Gen. Ling Yin-Ching near Chinchow today, marking the first victory over revolutionist troops.

It was reported that Gen. Ling, who was endeavoring to establish an independent government in the northeastern province with his "Peoples' Defense Army," was captured and executed.

FARIBAULT SLASHES LEVY SAVING $45,000 IN TAXES NEXT YEAR

ADHERES TO DEMAND OF 1,500 FARMERS FOR RELIEF FROM TAXATION

Blue Earth, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—In response to demands by more than 1,500 farmers, the Faribault county board of commissioners today has slashed off $45,000 from its 1932 budget.

By the board's action, the county agent, county nurse, weed inspectors and some contributions to the road and bridge fund were eliminated for next year. ### CREEK DIVERSION SANCTIONED BY GAME CLUB HERE

WOULD RAISE LEVELS IN SEV- ERAL LAKES; CLUB ADOPTS BIG PROGRAM

Choosing to remain an independent organization with its aims and purposes solely for the propagation and protection of Minnesota game and fish of first instance in the Brainerd Lake Region, members of the Crow Wing Protective Club pledged active support to a prodigious program at its annual meeting last night in the Brainerd Bottling Works offices.

High lights of the meeting included. Sanction of the petition and move underway by lake shore property owners to divert the course of Pelican Creek so that the water will flow through and raise the waters of Pelican, Markoe, Lougie, Perch, Edwards, Long, Round and Gull lakes.

Protest of the limiting of the duck season to 30 days, thus preventing future legislation of similar nature.

Protest against closing of Long Lake, branch of Bay Lake because of so called tame fish but not objecting to reservation of a portion of the lake for the protection of so called tame fish.

Applicatin to the State Game and Fish Department for 200 pheasants and 100 Hungarian partridge.

Ask Special Game District

Motion recommending to the State Game and Fish Department the establishment of a new district known as the Gull Lake Chain District and the appointment of a game warden to patrol the district exclusively.

Motion that the club urge the department to establish more fish hatcheries in Crow Wing county.

Authorization of the reduction of membership fees and the conducting of a membership drive.

Officers of the club were reelected for another year. They are: President, A. A. Weideman; vice president, J. F. Cibazar; secretary-treasurer, Frank G. Hall; field secretary, A. P. Cardie.

Copies of the protest by the club against a short duck season were ordered sent to the State Game and Fish Department, The State Agricultural Department and Congressman Harold Knutson.

Diversion to Cost $10,000

The movement underway to change the course of Pelican Creek calls for an estimated expenditure of close to $10,000. Funds for this work will be raised through subscription by property owners on the lakes benefited. Before the work can be done sanction must be received by the War Department. The creek at present unloads in Pine River an din turn flows into the Mississippi river.

The club adopted a resolution urging the State Game and Fish Department to furnish free copies of "Finn, Feathers and Furs" to rural schools of the county, a list of schools and addresses to be furnished by the club.

Plan Membership Drive

The club went on record asking the cooperation of the entire city in its move to enlarge the membership. The club now has 150 members.

A motion of thanks was expressed to Deputy Game Warden A. P. Cardie for his faithful and efficient work in behalf of the protection of game and fish.

J. F. Cibazar was thanked for the use of his building for the meeting and for his invitation allowing use of the building for future gatherings.

BALLOTING TODAY MAY DETERMINE CONTROL OF HOUSE

LINEUP NOW STANDS DEMO- CRATS 214; REPUBLICANS 213; FARMER-LABORITE 1

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Voters went to the polls in scattered localities today to register decisions that may determine which party is to control the house of representatives next month.

Joeett Shouse, chairman of the democratic national executive committee, predicts the democrats will arrive for the meeting of congress December 7 in numerical control.

The lineup now stands democrats 214; republicans, 213; farmer-labor, 1; vacancies, 7. Five vacancies are to be filled in today's elections. One in New Jersey will be filled December 1, a week before congress meets. The remaining one in New Hampshire will be filled in January. In several contests the Hoover administration is an issue.

Two major figures in the democratic party, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt and former Governor Alfred E. Smith, have come into collision over a constitutional amendment in New York state. It concerns a $20,000,000 11-year reforestation program, backed by Roosevelt and both political parties. Smith has been speaking strongly against it. Though Smith denies a break with Roosevelt, they have joined in a test of strength which may have important bearing on Roosevelt's presidential chances.

Congressional seats are being filled today in the following districts:
Ohio, first—Old district of the late Nicholas Longworth, doubtful; 20th—probably democratic.

Michigan, eighth—Doubtful.
Pennsylvania, second—Probably republican.

New York, seventh—Probably democratic.

Governors will be elected in New Jersey, Mississippi, where the democratic candidate, Mike Conner, has no opposition, and Kentucky, which will not report returns under its law for another day or two.

New Jersey candidates are republican, David Baird, Jr., and former Governor Harry A. Moore, democrat. Should the latter win he may become a favorite son presidential aspirant.

Virginia and Kentucky are electing legislatures and New York is electing a new assembly with a democratic gain of only six votes needed to switch control. Mayors are being elected in Philadelphia, Columbus, Memphis, Detroit, Salt Lake, San Francisco, and other cities.

Portage, Wis., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—"Babe" White, Chicago, for 15 years a human fly, vowed today that in the future he will be more careful about whom he shakes hands with before beginning his spectacular climb up the side of a building.

White explained that it is his custom to shake hands with the nearest spectator before starting his ascent.

Recently he gave an exhibition at Menominee. Citizens said he shook hands with a stranger, later identified as Frank Weber, a bandit killed in the holdup of a bank there the next day. Police sought White later for questioning concerning his acquaintance with Weber, but he had departed.

As White prepared to climb the side of a hotel building here yesterday, Chief of Police T. F. Curry seized both his hands—placed handcuffs on his wrists.

White is going to have to explain his handshaking custom to the satisfaction of Menominee authorities today.

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Back trails leading to the acquaintance of Walter Twining, 25, Hibbing, and Frank Webber, Minneapolis, who was shot down while escaping from a hold-up of the Kraft State Bank of Menominee, Wis., recently were followed today by Sheriff Emil Erickson.

One deputy investigated the association between the two men in Minneapolis where police found Webber's clothing and belongings in a garage rented by Twining for his automobile.

BULLETIN!
Tokio, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Forces under Gen. Chang Hsueh-Liang, Manchurian dictator, defeated the independent army of Gen. Ling Yin-Ching near Chinchow today, marking the first victory over revolutionary troops.

It was reported that Gen. Ling, who was endeavoring to establish an independent government in the northeastern province with his "Peoples' Defense Army," was captured and executed.

PROBE NAVY DEPARTMENT DATA

Principals Involved in Navy League Blast

William Howard Gardner, left, president of the Navy League, has been asked by President Hoover, right, to make a public correction of his misstatements and an apology in connection with his recent charges that the administration was "restricting, reducing and starving" the United States Navy. The president last night announced the personnel of an investigating committee to probe the charges.

PRESIDENT NAMES UNIT TO INVESTIGATE LEAGUE'S CHARGES

DUTY WILL BE TO ASCERTAIN FROM RECORDS TRUTH OF GARDNER'S ASSERTIONS

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—A quiet and wholly factual investigation of the Navy league's "abysmal ignorance"

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Senator Reed, Rep., Pa., and delegate to the London naval conference, came to President Hoover's defense today by charging that the Navy league has been "wholly unfair" to Mr. Hoover.

"No loyal American should speak in that way of any president," Reed said of the Navy league's "chief 'abysmal ignorance' charge."

charges against President Hoover appeared in prospect today.

Mr. Hoover narrowed the field of inquiry to such matters "as may be readily determined from departmental records" in announcing the personnel of his committee last night.

Restricted Committee

The personnel of the committee is such as to assure the restrictions desired by the president. It includes: Hugh Rodman, retired admiral, Spanish war veteran, holder of many decorations, former commander of the Pacific fleet (1919) who conferred with Mr. Hoover before his appointment.

John Hays Hammond, chairman of the coal investigating committee under the Harding administration and president of the National League of Republican Clubs, originally a mining engineer.

Elio Wadsworth, an overseer of Harvard university, former assistant secretary of treasury, and the only member of the commission whose home (Boston, Mass.) is outside of Washington.

Earnest Lee Jancke, assistant secretary of navy and close friend and admirer of Mr. Hoover.

William R. Castle, Jr., assistant secretary of state, also a confidant of the president.

Hammond, Wadsworth and Jancke were named as representatives of the navy league, according to Theodore Joslin, presidential publicity secretary.

Their duty will be to ascertain from the records the truth concerning the assertions of William Howard Gardner, president of the Navy League. Gardner issued a pamphlet statement last Wednesday in which he charged that the president's old proposal to immunize food supplies in times of war showed "abysmal ignorance."

Hammond, Wadsworth and Jancke were named as representatives of the navy league, according to Theodore Joslin, presidential publicity secretary.

RED CROSS HERE TO ROAD CONTRACTORS TALK ROLL CALL AT TO MOVE EQUIPMENT MEETING TOMORROW

PLANS CALL FOR START OF DRIVE NOV. 11; TO CON- TINUE ONE MONTH

Plans for the annual roll call of the Red Cross here will be made at a meeting of the Brainerd chapter of the American Red Cross association at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday at 3 p. m. The meeting is called by the chairman, Mrs. J. A. Thabes, Sr.

The roll call here will begin Armistice Day, November 11, and continue for 30 days.

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—The navy department was advised today in a message from Lakehurst that the airship Akron was aloft with 207 persons, a record breaking human load, aboard.

The craft is on a training flight without fixed itinerary, the message said. The German airplane, D-XX once took up 169 persons over Lake Constance, Switzerland.

ST. PAUL FIRM TO PAY $300 TO CITY FOR SEWER TAXES ON PROPERTY HERE

Initial steps have been taken in Brainerd to interest a St. Paul road contracting firm of prominence to establish its headquarters here.

Agree to Pay Tax

Those steps included the action of the city council to cancel tax penalties on delinquent property south of Main street and east of the river near the site of the old trading post. The contractors, however, through their representative, Louis Knudsen, agreed to pay an improvement tax for the installation of a sewer in the amount of $309 which has been 12 years standing.

Knudsen stated that the firm did not desire to have its name disclosed at this time since additional property in the city is to be purchased.

Would Bring Families Here

"The establishment of headquarters here would bring to the city three or four families and would provide additional employment for Brainerd people," he said.

The council considered the sale of the property a stroke of good business as it would place the property back again on the active tax roll.

To Move All Equipment

Knudsen said in reply to the question of President V. E. Quannstrom regarding maintenance of the property that the firm would see that the property at no time becomes unattractive.

The firm plans to move its entire equipment here.

PETITIONS COURT FOR GRAND JURY

COUNTY ATTORNEY SULLIVAN ASKS SESSION TO START NOVEMBER 9

County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan stated today he proposed to petition Judge Alfred L. Thwing in district court this afternoon for permission to call a grand jury here November 9.

"I have several matters to bring before a grand jury," Sullivan said.

Civil cases before a jury will begin in district court tomorrow.

ASK RIGHT TO PROVE THAT VALUABLE ORE BODIES EXIST IN AND NEAR CITY

That the immediate surroundings of Brainerd and even property within Brainerd abounds in valuable mineral fields, was the claim made by Charles E. and Fred Britton, Brainerd prospectors, who appealed to the city council last night for the right and assistance to sink a shaft on the Holland property to prove its worth as a rich bed for iron, silver, copper, gold and zinc.

INDUSTRY MUST SHOULDER RELIEF--

Unemployment insurance, old age pensions, high wages and good working conditions are points in an "American stabilization plan" which the commerce department will ask industry to impose upon itself to avoid or ameliorate future depressions.

This plan, which calls for reforms in business methods and enlarged group activity to meet the problems of overproduction, over-selling and general inefficiency, is to be made public soon.

Trade association representatives are being invited to discuss means of putting the plan into effect. It represents months of intensive study by experts who have carefully analyzed weaknesses of American business methods as revealed by the depression.

Meanwhile, a score of labor, religious and progressive political organizations announced formation of a committee to seek enactment by congress instead of by industry of a drastic program of unemployment relief.

The statement announcing formation bitterly assailed the Hoover administration's efforts to deal with unemployment.

The program provides for a federal fund for direct relief to be raised by higher taxes on large incomes and inheritances; a huge federal construction program; establishment of federal and state unemployment insurance systems; a six-hour day and a five-day week; pensioning of unemployed men and women of 65.

Inclusion of unemployment insurance and old age pensions in the commerce department plan attracted most interest generally. This is the first time the administration had openly urged industry to apply these reforms. President Hoover is opposed to any government entry into this field.

STATE HIGHWAY PATROL--

While many states have not as yet adopted a state highway patrol such as is in operation in Minnesota, each year sees more coming into being and it will not be long before the patrol system is operating in every state. And, the system should be nationwide as ample proof of its place in the curbing of vehicle law violations is shown in the reports of the states in which the patrol is in operation.

Minnesota ranks at or near the top of the list of states with regard to the efficiency of the state highway patrol. It has done much to curb ruthless and flagrant road law violations, this fact being particularly apparent in the Brainerd region. Without a doubt the unit operating in Brainerd and the surrounding community is one of the best in the Minnesota system. Automobile owners and drivers should offer every co-operation to the patrolmen in the performance of their duty in the hope and belief that the fine and efficient execution of their duties might continue.

A glance over the September report of Earle Brown, chief of the patrol, shows the magnitude of the work of the Minnesota highway patrol. Poring over the figures reveals a concerted effort on the part of the patrol to curb fast and dangerous driving and other hazardous movements with regard to the operation of a motor car. While arrests dropped in September against August, this can be attributed to many causes. The report, however, shows the many and varied violations which the highway patrol is attempting to rid the highways of.

Arrests in September were 479, and 658 in August. The September arrests included 102 for drunken driving, 250 for failure to stop at "Stop" signs, 59 for careless driving and 32 for improper license. Fines imposed were $11,931 in September and $14,939 in August. Of the September fines, $9,029 were for drunken driving.

Faulty lights were responsible for most of the illegal equipment tags. These included 1,643 lights out of adjustment, 1,083 no rear light, 382 glaring lights, 53 illegal lights, 707 one head light and 187 no clearance lights. Total illegal equipment tags in September were 4,480, compared to 9,037 in August.

Warnings dropped from 4,645 in August to 4,147 in September. Of these 1,346 were for improper parking. Road information and other assistance was given to 59,282 motorists. A total of 193 cars were taken in custody, of which 151 were due to the drivers being drunk.

CAPONE AN EXAMPLE--

The fact that Al Capone is being obliged to stay in jail while his attorneys carry his appeal on its snail-like progress through the higher courts raises again a point upon which the layman often wonders. Why isn't that the regular procedure in all criminal cases?

One of the weakest points of American criminal law today is the fact that so long a time often intervenes between conviction and imprisonment. Of appeals there is, sometimes, almost literally no end; and while they are being settled the convicted man usually goes his way, on bond, as free as the air.

It is being handled differently in Capone's case; and it is a little hard for the ordinary citizen to understand why that wouldn't be a good course to follow in all such cases.

RAILROADS FIGHT BACK--

The railroads, which have suffered heavily in the past decade through the competition of motor trucks, seem to be getting ready to fight back in a determined and effective manner.

Already several roads have installed container cars, by which huge steel boxes carry less-than-carload consignments of freight in an economical and efficient manner. Now it is reported that five big eastern roads have a plan for carrying loaded trucks on flat cars. Thus a truckload of freight would proceed from warehouse to consignee, just as any other truckload does—but the major part of its trip would be by railroad.

In such ways as these, very probably, the railroads will eventually meet the competition of the trucks. And the ordinary citizen, who is interested both in prosperous railroads and in economical transportation, cannot do otherwise than rejoice.

Dr. John A. Ryan expressed the feelings of millions of his fellow-countrymen very aptly in his recent testimony before the Senate committee which is debating the advisability of setting up a national economic council. "The most discouraging fact about our very grave unemployment situation," he said, "is the indifference to human suffering exhibited by our public officials and influential classes. They all seem to assume that their duty will be performed if none of the unemployed dies of actual starvation."

A great many Americans have surmised the existence of that attitude, but have lacked the ability to put their resentment into words. Father Ryan has done us all a service by focusing attention on a thing that is, as he says, the most discouraging part of the whole business.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Rich Mrs. Jupiter is robbed and murdered during the engagement party she gives her secretary, MARY HARKNESS. MARY's suspenseful brother, EDDIE, may have been in the house at the murder hour, and has disappeared. The thief failed to get the famous Jupiter rubies.

EDDIE is run down and killed as he goes to meet MARY. INSPECTOR KANE drops the case believing EDDIE the murderer. Mr. JUPITER and DIRK believe the same.

BOWEN of the Star discovers a racketeer gambler and crook called THE FLY to whom EDDIE owed money. Bowen gives MARY a hint he found in the Jupiter house the night of the murder. It is her brother's. The butler recognizes it as having been worn by a "gentle-crafter" he ejected that night.

Dirk forbids MARY to go on with the investigation because of the notoriety. They quarrel, make up and MARY promises to marry him once. While shopping for her trousseau, MARY's maid crashes into a speakeasy. Unhurt, she later meets Bowen for dinner there. They learn that The Fly is in a backroom.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XVIII

"Oh, waiter!"

Mike had moved off but Dirk called him back. "Where is he?"

Mike jerked a thumb toward the door at the rear of the room—the one leading into the private dining room through which Mary had passed in leaving the place that afternoon.

"He's the one Jack's been hiding?"

Mike nodded.

"We'll have to work fast," Bowen told Mary. It was plain that she was disconcerted by the news.

"They took me through that room this afternoon," she whispered. "There were some men in there then. How does he look, The Fly?"

Bowen answered absently. "I don't know. God, what I'd give for the nerve to walk through that door and poke him one!" He flicked a match away viciously.

"Oh, don't! He'll kill you," Mary gasped.

He withdrew from that glittering day dream to smile.

"Don't worry. I'm no Jack the Giant-killer. If he got away, he might go gunning for Jack, as a squealer. Can't let anything happen to Jack, the Newspaperman's Hero." He gnawed his underlip in a frenzy of concentration.

"You said you had an idea," Mary reminded him timidly.

"An idea for flushing him when we didn't know where he was," Bowen replied. "It's not necessary now." He relaxed into discontented abstraction.

"But are you sure he'd make another try for it? I should think he'd be too frightened!"

"He's not frightened at all. That's the point! Why, do you think he's hiding from the police in there?"

He threw back his head and laughed. "Don't you believe it? Why, every cop on the beat knows Shay's is a hang-out for crooks. If Kane asked the metropolitan police to bring him in it's the first place in this district they'd look. He'd be safer standing on a street corner. No, he's keeping out of sight for another reason. And a good one.

"This is what I figure: you know criminals are as vain as actors. They're as proud of a good smooth job as any sand-lot Hamlet. If they must a trick, they get razed by the rest of the boys. And they're human—they don't like it."

"Now you remember what a ragging Kane gave this bird in the newspapers? Called him an amateur and a bungler, and said he pulled the biggest boner of all time in passing up that necklace? That must have got under the Fly's skin! He'd give his soul for a chance to know—the jewels he gave her, that—"

Bowen nodded, understandingly. "But that's no place for it. Somebody will be knocking him off one of these nights."

"I told him. Mr. Ruyther did, too. He just says, 'Let them come.' He doesn't care what happens to him now his wife's dead." Bowen was clicking a thumb-nail against his teeth and staring straight through her with bright, thoughtful eyes.

"Well, they say lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place," he mused. "But just the same he's taking an awful chance."

SUDDENLY he sat up and slapped the table with his hand.

"By George!" he said. "Why not? Let him come! He's damned to him. And while I'm grabbing the necklace we'll grab him!"

"Oh, no!" Mary cried, in alarm. She shuddered. "Why not arrest him now? Why leave him free to come back again and perhaps kill—"

Patience he explained. "We haven't got anything on the Fly as it is. You and I may be convinced that he is the murderer of Mrs. Jupiter and undoubtedly of your brother as well. But what have we got to put before a jury? Not a scrap of evidence of any kind!"

"Those men at the track—"

"We haven't even got a credible witness," he went on. "Bookies, gamblers, touts. Can you see Mike there going on the witness stand and impressing a jury? They'd vote to hang him instead of the defendant."

"No, we've either got to spend a lot of time and money digging for evidence, finding the jewels, finding the car, and the man who drove it, and maybe not getting anything conclusive after all, or getting him red-handed, if we can. If we get too hot on his trail—hot enough to really get the dope on him—he may skip the country and then where would we be? Tied up with extradition proceedings, and a long-drawn-out legal battle. We'd both be old and gray before we got a conviction."

"This trick isn't as dangerous as it sounds, either. And you've got to remember this—if we get him to come to us we can choose the time and be ready for him. If he comes when he pleases, we're stumped."

"But are you sure he'd make another try for it? I should think he'd be too frightened!"

"He's not frightened at all. That's the point! Why, do you think he's hiding from the police in there?"

He threw back his head and laughed. "Don't you believe it? Why, every cop on the beat knows Shay's is a hang-out for crooks. If Kane asked the metropolitan police to bring him in it's the first place in this district they'd look. He'd be safer standing on a street corner. No, he's keeping out of sight for another reason. And a good one.

"This is what I figure: you know criminals are as vain as actors. They're as proud of a good smooth job as any sand-lot Hamlet. If they must a trick, they get razed by the rest of the boys. And they're human—they don't like it."

"Now you remember what a ragging Kane gave this bird in the newspapers? Called him an amateur and a bungler, and said he pulled the biggest boner of all time in passing up that necklace? That must have got under the Fly's skin! He'd give his soul for a chance to make a fool out of Kane! Give him another chance at that necklace and he'll jump at it. I'd bet my life on it!"

"But how?" Mary was all attention. Bowen's enthusiasm and air of conviction were contagious.

"Through Mike. Or Shay, perhaps. I can do a little discreet talking, after you're gone. It'll go straight to the mark. I suppose you'd call Shay straight but he's heart and soul with these crooks. He couldn't keep a secret."

"Nothing must happen to excite Mr. Jupiter! That's doctor's orders. Even if he would agree, I don't think it would be wise. It sounds awfully dangerous—"

"With the place surrounded? Don't be silly. They'd probably nab him without a shot being fired. If he came at all. He might smell a trap—that's what we've got to look out for." He was already planning the details of telling him the necklace's whereabouts. "When can I see the old man and put it up to him?" he asked briskly. "He'll have to pay the cops. He ought to, anyway."

MARY said, "Listen! Forget all this. It can't be done. Oh, I wouldn't have them know I talked to you about this for anything in the world—I'd no idea that what you had in mind was anything like this!"

Bowen looked dashed. He spread his hands despairingly.

"Good Lord! It's safe as a church! Where'll you be if he comes when you're not looking for him? That octogenarian butler'll handle him, I suppose! And he'll come. What's he hanging around New York for? He hasn't been near the track and his horse is racing at Belmont tomorrow. I'm positive he doesn't know he's under suspicion. As a matter of fact he isn't, except by you and me and who else have you told?"

"Mr. Jupiter. And Dirk. And Spence. Oh, how stupid of me! I forgot to tell you—" She recounted rapidly the story of the butler's encounter with the mysterious "gate-crasher" stranger that night Mrs. Jupiter was killed, and the strange coincidence of the coat.

Bowen seemed electrified at the news.

"There's identification, when we need it!" he exclaimed gleefully. "Of course, it would still be purely circumstantial, but the fact—that the Fly was on the premises that night—will go far toward hanging him. We've almost got a case! Almost!"

Mary's nerves gave way, and she clung to his hands in sudden panic. "Oh, let's call the police! I'd feel better if he was behind bars!"

Bowen looked at her somberly. He was silent for some time. When he spoke again he had toyed with the idea and rejected it for cause. But perhaps, for her sake, it would be best.

"It wouldn't be easy, though," he said. "There'd be a shoot-out, and somebody would get hurt. Why? Because you can burn in this state for one murder, and he's got two to answer for. Even if they took him, he might stay in jail and he might not. He'd never confess. He'd brazen it out. He knows he can beat the rap if he keeps his mouth shut. And once he knows we're onto him, every other way is closed to us. We'd have to convict him in court, or let him go. It he got off free, you'd have to accept the fact—and like it. There wouldn't be anything more you could do."

Mary began reluctantly to feel the strength of his reasoning.

"But he may get away anyhow," she faltered.

"Sure. Maybe. But there are more powerful chains than the ones you see sometimes. Pride. Revenge. Cupidity. Rank, stupid vanity. If we try, we can make him want to stick around! He won't run away. On the contrary, we won't be able to shake him. If he acts on his own initiative, he'll have the advantage of us, surprise us. But if he acts when we choose, we'll be ready for him. Ever hear of strategy?" He took a small dog-eared dictionary from his pocket and read: "Stratagem; a maneuver designed to deceive or outwit an enemy in war; hence, any device for obtaining advantage."

The girl's eyes were soft, gentle, as they rested on him. There was something endearing about his very earnestness.

"You're funny," she said gently. "You sound—wise. I hope you are."

He put the book back in his pocket with a flourish. "I hope to tell you I am! Listen to me, girl, could you beg, borrow or steal that necklace for one evening?"

It took her breath away. "Oh, I don't think so!" she gasped. "What for, for heaven's sake!"

"I'd like to rub his nose in it. It'd be like a red flag to a bull. He wants it, but we've got to make him want it right now! Tantalize him into action before he has time to plan."

"What do you want me to do?" Mary asked in a small voice. "Wear it where he can see it?"

He nodded. "Let him sniff blood, then you could run home quick with the necklace, and that would be enough. You'd be protected every step of the way. You'd have as big a bodyguard as Jack Diamond. There'd be plainclothesmen all over the place, in case anybody made a false move."

"Oh, but that would be insane!" To take such a chance with that many thousand dollars around my neck! I'd die of worry. And what if I lost it, or it was stolen?"

"I couldn't pay for it, not on my weekly insult," Bowen conceded. "Well, it was just an idea. Maybe there's another way." He clung to it fondly, though. "That would get action. We haven't got all summer to fool with this cluck. You're getting married pretty soon, aren't you?"

"Mary said, 'Heavens, I'd almost forgotten—I'm getting married tomorrow!'"

Bowen sat as if struck.

Then "Good God," he burst out, anger and disappointment in his tone, "you can get married any time! This is important. We've only got a few days—hours—minutes, maybe. But hell—if you haven't got the nerve—"

Mary brought her small fist down on the table with a bang.

"I've got the nerve for anything that will help get that man!" she cried. "If you'll promise to protect the necklace, I'll get it, somehow!"

A smile of surprise and gratification spread over his face. He looked pleased silly. "You will? Good girl! Then we're all set. It's a go!"

"It's a go," Mary repeated, and they shook hands.

A door opened at the rear of the room and footsteps approached. Bowen's eyes narrowed suddenly; his face became tense and set. Mary did not turn her head, but watched him with dilated eyes.

"All right, Barrymore," he muttered under his breath. "Now's your big moment. Here comes The Fly. Let me see you do your stuff!"

INDUSTRY MUST SHOULDER RELIEF--

Unemployment insurance, old age pensions, high wages and good working conditions are points in an "American stabilization plan" which the commerce department will ask industry to impose upon itself to avoid or ameliorate future depressions.

This plan, which calls for reforms in business methods and enlarged group activity to meet the problems of overproduction, over-selling and general inefficiency, is to be made public soon.

Trade association representatives are being invited to discuss means of putting the plan into effect. It represents months of intensive study by experts who have carefully analyzed weaknesses of American business methods as revealed by the depression.

Meanwhile, a score of labor, religious and progressive political organizations announced formation of a committee to seek enactment by congress instead of by industry of a drastic program of unemployment relief.

The statement announcing formation bitterly assailed the Hoover administration's efforts to deal with unemployment.

The program provides for a federal fund for direct relief to be raised by higher taxes on large incomes and inheritances; a huge federal construction program; establishment of federal and state unemployment insurance systems; a six-hour day and a five-day week; pensioning of unemployed men and women of 65.

Inclusion of unemployment insurance and old age pensions in the commerce department plan attracted most interest generally. This is the first time the administration had openly urged industry to apply these reforms. President Hoover is opposed to any government entry into this field.

STATE HIGHWAY PATROL--

While many states have not as yet adopted a state highway patrol such as is in operation in Minnesota, each year sees more coming into being and it will not be long before the patrol system is operating in every state. And, the system should be nationwide as ample proof of its place in the curbing of vehicle law violations is shown in the reports of the states in which the patrol is in operation.

Minnesota ranks at or near the top of the list of states with regard to the efficiency of the state highway patrol. It has done much to curb ruthless and flagrant road law violations, this fact being particularly apparent in the Brainerd region. Without a doubt the unit operating in Brainerd and the surrounding community is one of the best in the Minnesota system. Automobile owners and drivers should offer every co-operation to the patrolmen in the performance of their duty in the hope and belief that the fine and efficient execution of their duties might continue.

A glance over the September report of Earle Brown, chief of the patrol, shows the magnitude of the work of the Minnesota highway patrol. Poring over the figures reveals a concerted effort on the part of the patrol to curb fast and dangerous driving and other hazardous movements with regard to the operation of a motor car. While arrests dropped in September against August, this can be attributed to many causes. The report, however, shows the many and varied violations which the highway patrol is attempting to rid the highways of.

Arrests in September were 479, and 658 in August. The September arrests included 102 for drunken driving, 250 for failure to stop at "Stop" signs, 59 for careless driving and 32 for improper license. Fines imposed were $11,931 in September and $14,939 in August. Of the September fines, $9,029 were for drunken driving.

Faulty lights were responsible for most of the illegal equipment tags. These included 1,643 lights out of adjustment, 1,083 no rear light, 382 glaring lights, 53 illegal lights, 707 one head light and 187 no clearance lights. Total illegal equipment tags in September were 4,480, compared to 9,037 in August.

Warnings dropped from 4,645 in August to 4,147 in September. Of these 1,346 were for improper parking. Road information and other assistance was given to 59,282 motorists. A total of 193 cars were taken in custody, of which 151 were due to the drivers being drunk.

CAPONE AN EXAMPLE--

The fact that Al Capone is being obliged to stay in jail while his attorneys carry his appeal on its snail-like progress through the higher courts raises again a point upon which the layman often wonders. Why isn't that the regular procedure in all criminal cases?

One of the weakest points of American criminal law today is the fact that so long a time often intervenes between conviction and imprisonment. Of appeals there is, sometimes, almost literally no end; and while they are being settled the convicted man usually goes his way, on bond, as free as the air.

It is being handled differently in Capone's case; and it is a little hard for the ordinary citizen to understand why that wouldn't be a good course to follow in all such cases.

RAILROADS FIGHT BACK--

The railroads, which have suffered heavily in the past decade through the competition of motor trucks, seem to be getting ready to fight back in a determined and effective manner.

Already several roads have installed container cars, by which huge steel boxes carry less-than-carload consignments of freight in an economical and efficient manner. Now it is reported that five big eastern roads have a plan for carrying loaded trucks on flat cars. Thus a truckload of freight would proceed from warehouse to consignee, just as any other truckload does—but the major part of its trip would be by railroad.

In such ways as these, very probably, the railroads will eventually meet the competition of the trucks. And the ordinary citizen, who is interested both in prosperous railroads and in economical transportation, cannot do otherwise than rejoice.

Dr. John A. Ryan expressed the feelings of millions of his fellow-countrymen very aptly in his recent testimony before the Senate committee which is debating the advisability of setting up a national economic council. "The most discouraging fact about our very grave unemployment situation," he said, "is the indifference to human suffering exhibited by our public officials and influential classes. They all seem to assume that their duty will be performed if none of the unemployed dies of actual starvation."

A great many Americans have surmised the existence of that attitude, but have lacked the ability to put their resentment into words. Father Ryan has done us all a service by focusing attention on a thing that is, as he says, the most discouraging part of the whole business.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Rich Mrs. JUPITER is robbed and murdered during the engagement party she gives her secretary, MARY HARKNESS. Mary's escapee brother, EDDIE, may have been in the house at the murder hour, and has disappeared. The thief failed to get the famous Jupiter rubies.

Eddie is run down and killed as he goes to meet Mary. INSPECTOR KANE drops the case believing Eddie the murderer. Mr. JUPITER and DIRK believe the same.

BOWEN of the Star discovers a racetrack gambler and crook called THE FLY to whom Eddie owed money. Bowen gives Mary a coat he found in the Jupiter house the night of the murder. It is her brother's. The butler recognizes it as having been worn by a "gate-crasher" he ejected that night.

Dirk forbids Mary to go on with the investigation because of the notoriety. They quarrel, make up and Mary promises to marry him at once. While shopping for her trousseau, Mary's taxi crashes into a speakeasy. Unhurt, she later meets Bowen for dinner there. They learn that THE FLY is in a backroom.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XVIII

"Oh, waiter!" Mike had moved off but Dirk called him back. "Where is he?"

Mike jerked a thumb toward the door at the rear of the room—the one leading into the private dining room through which Mary had passed in leaving the place that afternoon.

"He's the one Jack's been hiding,"

Mike nodded.

"We'll have to work fast," Bowen told Mary. It was plain that he was disconcerted by the news.

"They took me through that room this afternoon," she whispered. "There were some men in there then. How does he look, The Fly?"

Bowen answered absently, "I don't know. God, what I'd give for the nerve to walk through that door and poke him one!" He flicked a match away viciously.

"Oh, don't! He'd kill you," Mary gasped.

He withdrew from that glittering day-dream to smile.

"Don't worry. I'm no Jack the Giant-killer. If he got away, he might go gunning for Jack, as a squealer. Can't let anything happen to Jack, the Newspaperman's Hope." He gnawed his underlip in a frenzy of concentration.

"You said you had an idea," Mary reminded him timidly.

"An idea for flushing him when we didn't know where he was," Bowen replied. "It's not necessary now." He relaxed into discontented abstraction.

"What was it?" she probed.

"Why—" he leaned forward and traced a pattern on the tablecloth with his forefinger thoughtfully.

"Simply this: that crook would give his soul for another chance at that necklace. I know it. I'd bet on it. And I'll lay you another bet—I don't know who his playmates are in there, but 10 to one they're hatching some scheme to get that necklace right now!"

"It's locked up!" Mary interposed quickly.

"No doubt," he answered dryly. "But there are ways of getting around that. Of course, if it's in a safety deposit box there isn't much to worry about."

Alarm widened the girl's eyes.

"It isn't," she confessed. "It's in Mr. Jupiter's personal safe. He wouldn't take it to the bank. No use locking the door after the horse was stolen, he said, and besides he didn't care what became of the thing anyway. He hates the thought that it was her jewels, you know—the jewels he gave her, that—"

Bowen nodded, understandingly. "But that's no place for it. Somebody will be knocking him off one of these nights."

"I told him, Mr. Ruyther did, too. He just says, 'Let them come.' He doesn't care what happens to him now his wife's dead." Bowen was clicking a thumb-nail against his teeth and staring straight through her with bright, thoughtful eyes.

"Well, they say lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place," he mused. "But just the same he's taking an awful chance."

SUDDENLY he sat up and slapped the table with his hand.

"By George!" he said. "Why not? Let him come and be damned to him. And while he's grabbing the necklace we'll grab him!"

"Oh, no!" Mary cried, in alarm. She shuddered. "Why not arrest him now? Why leave him free to come back again and perhaps kill—"

Patience he explained. "We haven't got anything on the Fly as it is. You and I may be convinced that he is the murderer of Mrs. Jupiter and undoubtedly of your brother as well. But what have we got to put before a jury? Not a scrap of evidence of any kind!"

"Those men at the track—"

"We haven't even got a credible witness," he went on. "Bookies, gamblers, touts. Can you see Mike there going on the witness stand and impressing a jury? They'd vote to hang him instead of the defendant."

"No, we've either got to spend a lot of time and money digging for evidence, finding the jewels, finding the car, and the man who drove it, and maybe not getting anything conclusive after all, or getting him red-handed, if we can. If we get too hot on his trail—hot enough to really get the dope on him—he may skip the country and then where would we be? Tied up with extradition proceedings, and a long-drawn-out legal battle. We'd both be old and gray before we got a conviction."

"This trick isn't as dangerous as it sounds, either. And you've got to remember this—if we get him to come to us we can choose the time and be ready for him. If he comes when he pleases, we're stumped."

"Now you remember what a raging Kane gave this bird in the newspapers? Called him an amateur and a bungler, and said he pulled the biggest bone of all time in passing up that necklace? That must have got under the Fly's skin! He'd give his soul for a chance to make a fool out of Kane! Give him another chance at that necklace and he'll jump at it. I'd bet my life on it!"

"With the place surrounded? Don't be silly. They'd probably nab him without a shot being fired. If he came at all. He might smell a trap—that's what we've got to look out for." He was already planning to doubt the wisdom of telling him the necklace's whereabouts. "When can I see the old man and put it up to him?" he asked briskly. "He'll have to pay the cops. He ought to, anyway."

MARY said, "Listen! Forget all this. It can't be done. Oh, I wouldn't have them know I talked to you about this for anything in the world—I'd no idea that what you had in mind was anything like this!"

REMAINING CROSBY STATE BANK ASSETS SOLD HERE FOR $465 IN LIVELY BIDDING

An original bid of $25 was boosted in district court here today in spirited bidding to $465, the highest amount offered for the purchase of remaining assets of the First State Bank of Crosby, Crosby, which closed its doors Feb. 2, 1927.

Depositors Benefitted

The auction was the final step in the liquidating of assets by J. H. Kinney, state bank liquidator who maintains headquarters in Brainerd. The bank had heretofore paid 65 percent returns to the depositors. The sale of the remaining assets today brought the returns to depositors to 67 percent.

The successful bidder was the Royal Investment Co., Minneapolis. Its strongest competitor was the Western Finance Co., Aberdeen, S. D., who through its president, M. C. Lasell, continued to raise the ante until he withdrew in favor of the $465 bid. A. T. Fisher, Brainerd, potato warehouse operator, remained in the race until the figure reached the $200 mark.

Returns Believed Gamble

The Royal Investment Co. representatives stated they had no idea what returns they would gain from possession of the remaining assets. It was entirely a gamble to them, they said.

The remaining assets on paper represent the following: $6,000 in notes several bankruptcies included; $6,000 real estate, heavy laden with back taxes; $4,000 stock liability claims, many worthless; $1213 in warrants on the Village of Manganese.

The best bet for returns was believed to be the warrants.

At the first sign of danger, take a laxative. Cut down on alcohol, coffee and tobacco. Eat lightly for several days. Take a tablespoonful of mentha pepsin before meals to make digestion as easy as possible. Keep quiet until your stomach is settled and the dizzy spells have passed.

Have your physician check your blood pressure at frequent intervals. Continue to protect yourself by taking mentha pepsin before every meal. (You can get Dare's Mentha Pepsin from Skauge Drug Co. or any other reliable druggist.) Avoid heavy food and too heavy meals—especially at night.

Judge Thwing acted in the capacity of auctioneer.

"This is a new experience to me," Judge Thwing remarked, but he displayed the manner of a veteran.

The bidding went up five dollars in fast clip as competition grew keen. When the figure got to the $300 mark the bidders wavered but boosted the price when the second time was called.

Police Prevent Fire

Police reported to the fire department the presence of smoke in the awning, of the Anna block, South Seventh street at 11:30 p. m. last night. Firemen arrived to prevent a blaze. There was no damage.

Fined for Intoxication

Lillian Sather was fined $15 in municipal court this morning on her plea of guilty to intoxication.

FLAMES DESTROY NICHOLL COTTAGE ON PINE SHORES

A cottage owned by Robert Nicholl, president of the Brainerd Service Motor Co., at Pine Shores, R. M. Lake, three miles northeast of Brainerd, burned to the ground in a spectacular blaze last night.

The blaze as it lighted the sky was first noticed by a youth motoring on the road near the new location of T. H. No. 2. He reported the fire to members of the Minnesota Forestry Department here. An attempt to quench the flames proved powerless.

The cottage was valued at approximately $500 and is partially covered by insurance. The charred embers continued to smolder this morning.

Trace History and Growth of Moving Pictures at Rotary Club Luncheon

History of the theater, its place in the community as an economic factor and the rise of pioneers in the film industry together with a general review of outstanding attractions including a discourse on George Arliss, peerless stage and screen celebrity, combined to make an interesting subject as elaborated by Harry Greenberg, manager of the Paramount theater, before the Rotary Club at noon today.

Greenberg traced the history of the industry the subsequent development of talking pictures and other phases. He told of the pioneering efforts of Adolph Zukor and Sam Katz, going into detail on the part they played in placing the theater in the sphere it now rests in the business world.

WEST MAY INVITE NORTHWESTERN TO PLAY ROSES GAME

COAST CLASSIC MAY SEE BIG TEN LOOP CHAMP IN ACTION

WINNER OF STANFORD-SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAME TO DETERMINE WEST'S TEAM

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Northwestern's powerful football team, overwhelming favorite to win the Big Ten football championship, probably will be invited to play the annual Tournament of Roses game at Pasadena, Calif., New Year's day, but faculty representatives of the Western conference are not expected to give the Wildcats permission to accept the invitation.

Northwestern athletic officials are understood to favor accepting the invitation.

The Big Ten last month voted to suspend rules to allow each member to play a post-season game with a conference team for charity not later than November 28. All Big Ten schedules end November 21.

Arrange Charity Games Card

Since that time requests have poured in for a variety of charity games. Iowa petitioned the conference for permission to meet Iowa State, a member of the Big Six, and was refused. Other games suggested were Wisconsin-Marquette, Michigan-Detroit, Illinois-Missouri, and a replay of the Northwestern-Notre Dame scoreless tie.

Conference members will hold a meeting some time this month, probably the week of November 16, to draw up the schedule for the November 28 charity games. The schedule as suggested when the post-season rule was temporarily suspended follows:

Northwestern vs. Michigan.
Chicago vs. Iowa.
Ohio State vs. Purdue.
Wisconsin vs. Indiana.
Illinois vs. Minnesota.

The unexpected turn of affairs, in which Michigan and Purdue were beaten, however, may cause the schedule to be rearranged. The Northwestern-Michigan game is going to be difficult to arrange because both schools want their game at home. Northwestern plans to play its game in Soldier field with its 120,000 seating capacity, and Michigan is known to be bitterly opposed to playing there.

West Team Not Determined

If Northwestern defeat Minnesota Saturday, the Wildcats probably will complete their schedule without defeat and hold undisputed claim to the title. In that event Northwestern probably will not be anxious to risk its chances at losing a clear claim to the first undisputed football title it ever won. Rather Northwestern officials would prefer to play either Notre Dame or accept the Tournament of Roses game.

The winner of Saturday's game between Southern California and Stanford at Los Angeles will represent the far west in the Tournament of Roses game.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Maurice Rosenbloom, of New York, still held possession of his light heavyweight crown today and, as far as Kansas City fight fans are concerned, he can show it somewhere else after this.

Rosenbloom met "Battling" Bozo, of Birmingham, Ala., last night in what was advertised to be a titular bout. The southerner, however, came into the ring two pounds overweight so the title was not at stake.

Obtains Horton Smith

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Horton Smith, former Joplin, Mo., professional golfer, who has been connected with the Cragston-On-The-Hudson club for the last year, will be affiliated with the Oak Park, (Ill.) Country club, beginning next spring, it was announced today. Under the terms of the contract Smith will devote most of his time to instruction work during the summer.

N. E. AND E. M. B. A. WIN THREE APIECE

The Northeast Business Men and the E. M. B. A. won three games apiece over the Brainos and the Peterson Clothing Co. respectively at Van's alleys last night.

Rardin cracked the pins for the three game high of 602 pins while Harold Olson's 234 was high single. He scored a 590 for second high count.

The Alderman-Maghan and the Byes, the Study Club and the Lions will roll tonight.

TACKLE DEFINITELY OUT OF BATTLE WITH WILDCATS SATURDAY

MAC DOUGALL EXPECTED TO BE BACK IN SHAPE FOR CRUCIAL CLASH

Minneapolis, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Marshal Wells, Minnesota tackle, will be kept out of Saturday's battle with Northwestern because of an injured arm. Kenneth MacDougall, midget quarterback, twisted his ankle against Wisconsin but will be ready for Northwestern.

Evanston, Ill., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Ernest (Pug) Rentner, Northwestern's star halfback, broke his right thumb in the Illinois game last week, an X-ray revealed today. Coach Dick Hanley said Rentner would play against Minnesota Saturday with his thumb in a cast, but that Ollie Olson, fullback, would do the passing in Rentner's place.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 3.—(UP)—The failure of Notre Dame to cash in on five scoring opportunities in the 19-0 victory over Carnegie Tech last week caused Coach Harty Anderson today to consider making changes in the Irish lineup for Saturday's game with Pennsylvania. Norm Greeney, right guard, was the only casualty against Carnegie and he will be ready for the Penn game.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Paul Calvert, one of Purdue's best ends, has a dislocated shoulder and will be lost to the Boilermakers the rest of the season. Jack White, veteran quarterback who is nursing an injured leg, probably will be unable to play for two weeks.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Several shakeups are expected this week in the Wisconsin team as a result of their defeat by Minnesota. Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite was disappointed in his team's tackling which permitted Minnesota to score on two long runs.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Chicago's best chance for a victory in its three remaining games this season is expected to be presented the Maroons Saturday when Arkansas invades the midway. Fullback Pete Zimmer, sophomore, will be back in the game after a two weeks' layoff.

N. Y. Giants to Prison to Coach Convicts

Ossining, N. Y., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Six members of the New York Giants professional football team entered Sing Sing prison today to work out two hour sentences imposed by the Giants owner, Tim Mara.

The players—Ray Flaherty, Glenn Campbell, Bill Owen, Butch Gibson, Dale Gibson, Dale Burnett and Ted Bucklin—were sent to Sing Sing at the request of Warden Lawes to teach the line punts of the game to inmates of the institution.

Lawes introduced football to the prison this fall.

All football competition at the institution is intra-mural, as Sing Sing is unable to book "home and home" games and can't find outside opponents with like eligibility requirements.

Net operating income of Class I railroads in the United States declined more than 32 per cent in July.

SCHMELING WANTS DEMPSEY; NO OTHER INTERESTS CHAMP

NOT THE LEAST BIT INTERESTED IN SHARKEY OR LOUGH- RAN, GERMANY SAYS

New York, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Max Schmeling wants to fight Jack Dempsey but isn't in the least interested in meeting Jack Sharkey or Tommy Loughran.

Jack Dempsey is willing to meet Gene Tunney or Primo Carnera, but isn't at all anxious to fight Schmeling or Jack Sharkey.

Jack Sharkey wants to box Schmeling and Dempsey but bars Tommy Loughran and Mickey Walker.

Mickey Walker wants to fight Schmeling or Sharkey but draws the line on Loughran and Ernie Schaaf.

Gene Tunney doesn't want to fight anyone—and they all want to fight him.

Tommy Loughran is willing to battle any of the top notchers—and none of them will accept the challenge.

Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's manager, says he has contracted for a championship bout between the German and Dempsey at New York or Chicago in June or September. Dempsey denies any such agreement.

Jack Kearns, Walker's manager, says a Schmeling-Mickey Walker bout has been arranged at Los Angeles Olympic stadium, Feb. 22. Jacobs denies it.

Johnny Buckley, Sharkey's manager, says Sharkey has been "assured" matches with Schmeling and Dempsey next summer. The "assurers" cannot be located.

Jimmy Johnston says Schmeling is under contract to Madison Square Garden and will not be allowed to fight for anyone else.

A bridge table manufacturer is putting out a new product with a moisture-proof top.

WRESTLING RESULTS

At Chicago—Ed (Strangler) Lewis was recognized as world's heavyweight wrestling champion today by the Illinois State athletic commission, as a result of his victory over Wladek Zbyszko at the Chicago Stadium last night. Lewis donated his services for the charity match which drew 7,211 persons and gate receipts of $13,064.70.

Lewis won the first fall with a headlock in 23 minutes, 52 seconds, lost the second when Zbyszko flopped him with a flying mare in 4 minutes, 19 seconds, and then won the third with a cross body slam in 7 minutes, 54 seconds.

At Madison Square Garden, New York—Jimmy London, 200, St. Louis, threw Matros Kirilenko, 212, Russia, (39:31); Ray Steele, 226, California, (39:31); Earl McCready, 235, Oklahoma, (30); Hans Steinke, Germany, pinned Willie Davis, Virginia, (2:04); Herb Freeman, New York, threw Gene Ladus, France; George Calza, Italy, threw Joe (Toots) Mondt, Colorado; Sander Szabo, Hungary, drew with Rudy Dusek, Nebraska.

Arrange Charity Games Card

Since that time requests have poured in for a variety of charity games. Iowa petitioned the conference for permission to meet Iowa State, a member of the Big Six, and was refused. Other games suggested were Wisconsin-Marquette, Michigan-Detroit, Illinois-Missouri, and a replay of the Northwestern-Notre Dame scoreless tie.

Conference members will hold a meeting some time this month, probably the week of November 16, to draw up the schedule for the November 28 charity games. The schedule as suggested when the post-season rule was temporarily suspended follows:

Northwestern vs. Michigan.
Chicago vs. Iowa.
Ohio State vs. Purdue.
Wisconsin vs. Indiana.
Illinois vs. Minnesota.

The unexpected turn of affairs, in which Michigan and Purdue were beaten, however, may cause the schedule to be rearranged. The Northwestern-Michigan game is going to be difficult to arrange because both schools want their game at home. Northwestern plans to play its game in Soldier field with its 120,000 seating capacity, and Michigan is known to be bitterly opposed to playing there.

West Team Not Determined
If Northwestern defeat Minnesota Saturday, the Wildcats probably will complete their schedule without defeat and hold undisputed claim to the title. In that event Northwestern probably will not be anxious to risk its chances at losing a clear claim to the first undisputed football title it ever won. Rather Northwestern officials would prefer to play either Notre Dame or accept the Tournament of Roses game.

The winner of Saturday's game between Southern California and Stanford at Los Angeles will represent the far west in the Tournament of Roses game.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Maxie Rosenbloom, of New York, still held possession of his light heavyweight crown today and, as far as Kansas City fight fans are concerned, he can show it somewhere else after this.

Rosenbloom met "Battling" Bozo, of Birmingham, Ala., last night in what was advertised to be a titular bout. The southerner, however, came into the ring two pounds overweight so the title was not at stake.

Oak Park, Ill., Club

Obtains Horton Smith

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Horton Smith, former Joplin, Mo., professional golfer, who has been connected with the Cragston-On-The-Hudson club for the last year, will be affiliated with the Oak Park, (Ill.) Country club, beginning next spring, it was announced today. Under the terms of the contract Smith will devote most of his time to instruction work during the summer.

N. E. AND E. M. B. A. WIN THREE APIECE

The Northeast Business Men and the E. M. B. A. won three games apiece over the Brainos and the Peterson Clothing Co. respectively at Van's alleys last night.

Rardin cracked the pins for the three game high of 602 pins while Harold Olson's 234 was high single. He scored a 590 for second high count.

The Alderman-Maghan and the Byes, the Study Club and the Lions will roll tonight.

TACKLE DEFINITELY OUT OF BATTLE WITH WILDCATS SATURDAY

MAC DOUGALL EXPECTED TO BE BACK IN SHAPE FOR CRUCIAL CLASH

Minneapolis, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Marshal Wells, Minnesota tackle, will be kept out of Saturday's battle with Northwestern because of an injured arm. Kenneth MacDougall, midget quarterback, twisted his ankle against Wisconsin but will be ready for Northwestern.

Evanston, Ill., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Ernest (Pug) Rentner, Northwestern's star halfback, broke his right thumb in the Illinois game last week, an X-ray revealed today. Coach Dick Hanley said Rentner would play against Minnesota Saturday with his thumb in a cast, but that Ollie Olson, fullback, would do the passing in Rentner's place.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 3.—(UP)—The failure of Notre Dame to cash in on five scoring opportunities in the 19-0 victory over Carnegie Tech last week caused Coach Hearty Anderson today to consider making changes in the Irish lineup for Saturday's game with Pennsylvania. Norm Greeney, right guard, was the only casualty against Carnegie and he will be ready for the Penn game.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Paul Calvert, one of Purdue's best ends, has a dislocated shoulder and will be lost to the Boilermakers the rest of the season. Jack White, veteran quarterback who is nursing an injured leg, probably will be unable to play for two weeks.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Several shakeups are expected this week in the Wisconsin team as a result of their defeat by Minnesota. Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite was disappointed in his team's tackling which permitted Minnesota to score on two long runs.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Chicago's best chance for a victory in its three remaining games this season is expected to be presented the Maroons Saturday when Arkansas invades the midway. Fullback Pete Zummer, sophomore, will be back in the game after a two weeks' layoff.

N. Y. Giants to Prison to Coach Convicts

Ossining, N. Y., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Six members of the New York Giants professional football team entered Sing Sing prison today to work out two hour sentences imposed by the Giants owner, Tim Mara.

The players—Ray Flaherty, Glenn Campbell, Bill Owen, Butch Gibson, Dale Gibson, Dale Burnett and Ted Bucklin—were sent to Sing Sing at the request of Warden Lawes to teach the fine points of the game to inmates of the institution.

Lawes introduced football to the prison this fall.

All football competition at the institution is intra-mural, as Sing Sing is unable to book "home and home" games and can't find outside opponents with like eligibility requirements.

Net operating income of Class 1 railroads in the United States declined more than 32 per cent in July.

SCHMELING WANTS DEMPSEY; NO OTHER INTERESTS CHAMP

NOT THE LEAST BIT INTERESTED IN SHARKEY OR LOUGHRAN, GERMANY SAYS

New York, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Max Schmeling wants to fight Jack Dempsey but isn't in the least interested in meeting Jack Sharkey or Tommy Loughran.

Jack Dempsey is willing to meet Gene Tunney or Primo Carnera, but isn't at all anxious to fight Schmeling or Jack Sharkey.

Jack Sharkey wants to box Schmeling and Dempsey but bars Tommy Loughran and Mickey Walker.

Mickey Walker wants to fight Schmeling or Sharkey but draws the line on Loughran and Ernie Schaaf. Gene Tunney doesn't want to fight anyone—and they all want to fight him.

Tommy Loughran is willing to battle any of the top notchers—and none of them will accept the challenge.

Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's manager, says he has contracted for a championship bout between the German and Dempsey at New York or Chicago in June or September. Dempsey denies any such agreement.

Jack Kearns, Walker's manager, says a Schmeling-Mickey Walker bout has been arranged at Los Angeles Olympic stadium, Feb. 22. Jacobs denies it.

Johnny Buckley, Sharkey's manager, says Sharkey has been "assured" matches with Schmeling and Dempsey next summer. The "assurers" cannot be located.

Jimmy Johnston says Schmeling is under contract to Madison Square Garden and will not be allowed to fight for anyone else.

A bridge table manufacturer is putting out a new product with a moisture-proof top.

WRESTLING RESULTS

At Chicago—Ed (Strangler) Lewis was recognized as world's heavyweight wrestling champion today by the Illinois State athletic commission, as a result of his victory over Wladex Zbyszko at the Chicago Stadium last night. Lewis donated his services for the charity match which drew 7,241 persons and gate receipts of $13,064.70. Lewis won the first fall with a headlock in 23 minutes, 52 seconds, lost the second when Zbyszko flopped him with a flying mare in 4 minutes, 16 seconds, and then won the third with a cross body slam in 7 minutes, 54 seconds. At Madison Square Garden, New York—Jimmy Lonsos, 200, St. Louis, threw Matros Kirilenko, 212, Russia, (39:31); Ray Steele, 226, California, drew with Earl McCready, 235, Oklahoma, (30); Hans Steinke, Germany, pinned Willie Davis, Virginia, (2:04); Herb Freeman, New York, threw Gene Ladus, France; George Calza, Italy, threw Joe (Toots) Mondt, Colorado; Sendor Szabo, Hungary, drew with Rudy Dusek, Nebraska.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE UNDER JUDGMENT OF LIEB FORECLOSURE

State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, ss., District Court, Fifteenth Judicial District.
 Standard Lumber Company, a corporation, Plaintiff, vs. WALTER E. JENSEN, Eugene A. Fish, and Thomas H. Whitney, Defendants.

Notice is hereby given, that under and by virtue of a judgment and decree entered in the above entitled action on the 6th day of October, 1931, for the benefit of the plaintiff for the sum of $1875.26, a certified copy of which said judgment has been delivered to me for enforcement, I, the undersigned, sheriff of said Crow Wing County, will sell, subject to the mortgage lien of defendant, Thomas H. Whitney, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, on Wednesday, the 25th day of November, 1931, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the front door of the Court House in the City of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota, in one parcel, the whole of the property and premises described in said judgment and decree, to pay and satisfy the amount of said lien, all of which said described property and premises is situated in said County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota and is described as follows, to-wit:

All of Lots 2 and 3, except the North 28 rods thereof, in Section 35, Township 136 North, Range 29 West of the 5th P. M., together with the buildings and improvements thereon, and all hereditaments thereto, excepting all mineral rights reserved to the State of Minnesota, subject to redemption as provided by law. Dated October 6, 1931.

FRANK E. LITTLE, Sheriff of Crow Wing County, and State of Minnesota.

F. E. EBER, Attorney for Plaintiff, Brainerd, Minnesota.

(Published in The Brainerd Daily Dispatch Tuesday, October 20, 27, and November 3, 1931, 4W.)

SUMMONS
 State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, District Court, Fifteenth Judicial District.
 Plaintiff, vs. Frank Schmelz and wife, D. F. Lemire, Theodore Danville and Esther Danville, his wife, M. Danville, Charles H. Wiley, and also all other persons unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, interest or lien in the real estate described in the complaint herein.

The State of Minnesota to the above named defendants and each of them: You and each of you are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled action, which complaint is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at the courthouse, in the City of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing, and State of Minnesota, and to serve a copy of your answer to said complaint upon the undersigned at his office at Glenwood, Minnesota, within twenty days after the service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of such service, and if you fail to answer the said complaint within the time aforesaid, the plaintiff in this action will apply to the Court for the relief in her complaint demanded.

Dated October 19, 1931.
 HERMAN A. SENNEKA, Attorney for Plaintiff, Glenwood, Minnesota.

State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, District Court, Fifteenth Judicial District.
 Same parties as in Summons immediately preceding this notice.

Notice is hereby given that an action has been commenced and is pending in the above named court, upon a complaint of the above named plaintiff against the above named defendants; that the object of said action is to quiet the title to the lands hereinafter described and to establish the plaintiff's claim against any claim of any of the defendants thereto and to forever bar said defendants from any right or title to the real estate described as follows, to-wit: Lot 2 and 3, except of Block four of Schmelz's Third Addition to the City of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota. Dated October 19, 1931.

HERMAN A. SENNEKA, Attorney for Plaintiff, Glenwood, Minnesota.

WARRIORS TO CLASH WITH C-I ON LOCAL GRIDIRON ARMISTICE DAY

BRAINERD TO HAVE SLIGHT EDGE BECAUSE OF TWO WEEKS REST

On Armistice Day, November 11, at the local gridiron, Coach Dammann's Warriors will meet the ancient Crosby-Ironton rivals. So far, this season, the boys have won three out of five games, losing to Aitkin and Little Falls, both of which have defeated C-I. Staples, beaten by the Warriors, upset the dope by defeating the Rangers. It was their first grid defeat in five years.

Both teams have shown equal power, and as a result a game equal in every respect is promised. The Brainerd boys have had the advantage of a two weeks vacation while their rivals have been engaging in games. This should give the team a chance to recover from bruise and sprain and they should be in top notch form for the Armistice Day game.

Coaches Dammann and Taylor are working the boys hard for the wind up tussle and undoubtedly have some new plays to uncock against the maroon and white of Crosby-Ironton.

The return of Jackson and McPherson will bolster the squad and the fellows will be at their full strength.

The probable lineup follows: McPherson or Garvey will be at the center post; at guards will be Anderson, Edstrom, or Koec; tackles, Jackson, G. Wyle, Englehart or Bedore. The end posts will be filled by Swanson, B. Wyle, Paine or Coering. In the backfield at quarter, Gabioui; halves, White, Dahl, or Templeton. Foster will be fullback.

Teachers' Training Notes

The Teachers Training Department of Crosby has invited the various departments of Crow Wing county, of which the Brainerd Training School is included, for a general meeting to be held at Crosby November 17. The Brainerd students will present a star project which they are now preparing. The project will consist of maps, charts, correlation of stars in music, literature and mythology.

The class as writing original poems and original stories for language projects.

Junior Committees Appointed at Meeting

Last Friday afternoon at 3:20 in the Senior Assembly the Juniors decided that their dues for the first semester should be 50c. By the end of the first semester they will be able to tell approximately what their expenses for the year will be and at that time shall be able to decide on the second semester dues.

It was announced that there was to be a Junior-Senior picnic as soon as the weather would permit. The entertainment committee appointed to meet with the Senior committee was Irja Huhtala, chairman, Margaret Huston, Viola Murphy and Virginia Reike. The refreshment committee appointed was Virginia Wilson, chairman, with Myles Hall, Robert Ebert and Lela Schobe assisting.

XCHANGE XTRACTS

Quick work is shown by Junior classes in many high schools as they have already chosen their class play and picked the cast.

Discipline in the corridors and the care of many outside activities are very efficiently managed at the University high school in Minneapolis by a body of students called the "Senate."

Seniors Urged to Have Class Pictures Taken

The administration of the Senior class desires to take this means to notify the class that it will be necessary for each member to have their pictures taken at once. The photographers are anxious to have the pictures out of the way in order to make room for the Xmas pictures. All pictures must be finished before December 1st so that the print will be ready for the Brainerdian annual.

"A WEEK'S JOB"

On Monday I pushed out the motah.
 On Tuesday I gave it a clean
 On Wednesday and Thursday a crowd gathered round.
 And exclaimed, "Wot a liwahley machine!"
 On Friday I filled it with petrol—
 And rubbed it all ovah with lard
 On Saturday morning it started to rain.
 So I pushed it back into the yard!
 JENNIE HOSTON.

Betty (just home from a vacation in Egypt): "And Auntie, it was so interesting; the tombs and pyramids and things were all covered with hieroglyphics."

Aunt Louisa: "Oh, heer! I hope you didn't get any on you, child."

Would-be Suicide: "Don't rescue me. I want to die."

Tommy Koec: "Well, you'll have to postpone it, I want a life saving medal."

YE EDITOR

During the past two months the Brainerdian staff has been striving earnestly to put out a worth while weekly that will meet the approval of the student body and we are therefore about to print a "Students Voice" column through which the students may give their personal views on school affairs and publications.

The staff will gladly receive all criticisms or means of improvement for the weekly paper because with the co-operation of the high school the old motto of a "Bigger and Better Brainerdian" may be upheld.

YE EDITOR.

PEP BAND TO HAVE NEW UNIFORMS

UNIFORMS TO BE IN SCHOOL COLORS

Our high school Pep band is going to have uniforms in the near future. The members will wear a full uniform of blue and white, the school colors.

The boys will wear white trousers with a blue silk stripe and a blue sash. The girls will wear a white skirt with the blue sash. The shirts, capes and caps will be the same. The shirts will be white and the capes will be blue with a bright red lining making a very attractive garment. The caps will be of the over sea type in blue with a white tassel.

Mr. Ellertson, the director, said that the entire uniform will be purchased by the members and funds raised by the band as an organization. Each individual is to purchase his or her own skirt or trousers, the remainder of the uniforms is to be purchased by the band with money it shall raise by entertainments and programs. The uniform, excepting trousers and skirts, will be property of the school to be used by the band in future years. It will be necessary to order about 40 uniforms to fit the entire band and with their new uniforms and a selection of new and popular numbers their first appearance will be a rare treat to the student body.

Elaine Tracy Elected President of Camp Fire

The high school Camp Fire was organized for the year when the opening meeting was held last week at which time the election of officers took place. The following officers were elected: president, Elaine Tracy; vice president, Margaret Nolan; secretary, Marcella Van Essen; song leader, Colette McCarthy; scribe, Marjorie Lewis.

A hike was planned and was to have been held last Tuesday but on account of the rainy weather it was postponed.

The girls who are going to become fire-makers are beginning to work for their rank now so they may become fire-makers at the Grand Council Fire which will be held the latter part of November.

Frosh, Junior Girls Win in Volleyball

Girls' volleyball tournament began Wednesday with a clash between the Juniors and the Sophomores. The Juniors emerging victorious with a 29 to 24 score.

Freshmen met the Seniors in the fast and furious game Thursday when the study little newcomers met a team with three years experience and defeated them with a 27-16 score. The strength of the Freshmen team promises the Juniors keen competition in the battle for the championship.

The Booster

Wouldn't this old world be better, If the folks we meet would say, "I know something good about you," And treat us just that way?

Instead of this old, old gossip, "Have you heard about so and so?" Why not say something nice about them?

It will make more friends, you know.

Wouldn't life be lots more happy, If the good that's in us all Was the only thing about us That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't we be more happy, If we praised the good we see? For there's such a lot of goodness In the worst of you and me.

Wouldn't it be nice to practice, That fine way of thinking too? "You know something good about me?"

And—"I know something good about you."

—Virginia Reike.

Mrs. Mary Johnson: "I want to see Mistah Melby, please."

Office Boy: "Mr. Melby is engaged."

Mrs. Mary Johnson: "Go long boy. Ah don't want to marry him. Tell him his washday wants huh money."

Miss Taylor: "I will give the next topic to Ray Palmer."

Margaret Gustafson: "She's not here."

MISS DOROTHY DUNN GIVES HUMOROUS READING AT B I-MONTHLY PROGRAM

SKOOL SKANDEL

I've got it! 'Tis the answer—Dear F. R.:

Be a good girl and remember that "every dog has its day."

Sincerely,

DOROTHY DIX.

Muriel Bedal was seen in conversation with a boy Friday.

We wonder if Ralph Hallquist's mother found those queer marks on his shirt collar. They resembled a pierced heart, and the initials R. H. and either D. G. or R. S. It wasn't quite clear.

Why is Art Hickerson so fastidious lately?

My, my, as Miss Schow would say, "These little affairs . . ."

MISS MICHAEL IS SUPERVISING X-RAYS FOR GIRLS

CHRISTMAS SEALS SALES TO MAKE X-RAYS POSSIBLE

Miss Eulah Michael, City and School Nurse, is now at work supervising the X-raying of those High School girls whose Mautoux test showed a positive result last spring.

The work is being conducted by the State Tubercular Hospital at Deerwood, Minnesota. There is no charge for this service as it is entirely paid for by the sale of Christmas seals. If this service was to be performed privately it would cost approximately $10 for each X-ray. Every parent whose child showed a positive reaction to the Mautoux test is urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

About fourteen girls went to Deerwood Monday afternoon to have X-ray pictures taken. There are approximately thirty more girls to go. Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Seifert, Miss Michael and Mrs. Gustafson have contributed the use of their cars for the three or four trips that will be necessary.

Diary for October

Oct. 1—A pep fest was held and we tried out some new yells which proved to be OK.

Oct. 2—Marjorie F. was seen dashing through the halls at 3:30 p. m. We all wondered what made her late.

Oct. 3—Miss Schow is heard laughing, after 5:30 p. m., about the jokes she heard during the day.

Oct. 4—Dorothy O. was seen walking with a boy; they seem to be quite intimate friends.

Oct. 5—Viola Murphy gets herself measured, finds she has not grown since last month.

SUMMONS

State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, District Court, Fifteenth Judicial District.

Plaintiff, vs. Frank Schmeck and wife, D. E. Lemire, Theodore Danville and Esther Danville, his wife, M. Danville, Charles H. Wiley, and also all other persons unknown claiming any right, title, interest, direct or indirect in the real estate described in the complaint herein. Defendants.

The State of Minnesota to the above named defendants and each of them: You and each of you are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled action, which complaint is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at the courthouse, in the City of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing, and State of Minnesota, and to serve a copy of your answer to said complaint upon the undersigned at his office at Glenwood, Minnesota, within twenty days after the service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of such service, and if you fail to answer the said complaint within the time aforesaid, the plaintiff in this action will apply to the court for the relief in her complaint demanded. Dated October 13, 1931.

HERMAN A. SENNEKA, Attorney for Plaintiff, Glenwood, Minnesota.

State of Minnesota, County of Crow Wing, District Court, Fifteenth Judicial District.

Same parties as in Summons immediately preceding this notice.

Lis Pendens

Notice is hereby given that an action has been commenced and is pending in the above named court, upon a complaint of the above named plaintiff against the above named defendants; that the object of said action is to quiet the title to the lands hereinafter described and to establish the plaintiff's claim against any claim of any of the defendants thereto and to forever bar said defendants from any right or title to the real estate described as follows, to-wit: Lots 2 and 3, of Block four of Schmeck's Third Addition to the City of Brainerd, County of Crow Wing and State of Minnesota. Dated October 13, 1931.

HERMAN A. SENNEKA, Attorney for Plaintiff, Glenwood, Minnesota.

WARRIORS TO CLASH WITH C-I ON LOCAL GRIDIRON ARMISTICE DAY

BRAINERD TO HAVE SLIGHT EDGE BECAUSE OF TWO WEEKS REST

On Armistice Day, November 11, at the local gridiron, Coach Dammann's Warriors will meet the ancient Crosby-Ironton rivals. So far, this season, the boys have won three out of five games, losing to Aitkin and Little Falls, both of which have defeated C-I. Staples, beaten by the Warriors, upset the dope by defeating the Rangers. It was their first grid defeat in five years.

Both teams have shown equal power, and as a result a game equal in every respect is promised. The Brainerd boys have had the advantage of a two weeks vacation while their rivals have been engaging in games. This should give the team a chance to recover from bruise and sprain and they should be in top notch form for the Armistice Day game.

Coaches Dammann and Taylor are working the boys hard for the wind up tussle and undoubtedly have some new plays to uncork against the maroon and white of Crosby-Ironton.

The return of Jackson and McPherson will bolster the squad and the fellows will be at their full strength.

The probable lineup follows: McPherson or Garvey will be at the center post; at guards will be Anderson, Edstrom, or Koeck; tackles, Jackson, G. Wygle, Englehart or Bedore. The end posts will be filled by Swanson, B. Wygle, Paine or Coering. In the backfield at quarter, Gabiot, halves, White, Dahl, or Templeton. Foster will be fullback.

Teachers' Training Notes

The Teachers Training Department of Crosby has invited the various departments of Crow Wing county, of which the Brainerd Training School is included, for a general meeting to be held at Crosby November 17. The Brainerd students will present a star project which they are now preparing. The project will consist of maps, charts, correlation of stars in music, literature and mythology.

The class as writing original poems and original stories for language projects.

Junior Committees

Appointed at Meeting

Last Friday afternoon at 3:30 in the Senior Assembly the Juniors decided that their dues for the first semester should be 50c. By the end of the first semester they will be able to tell approximately what their expenses for the year will be and at that time shall be able to decide on the second semester dues.

It was announced that there was to be a Junior-Senior picnic as soon as the weather would permit. The entertainment committee appointed to meet with the Senior committee was Irja Huhtala, chairman, Margaret Huston, Viola Murphy and Virginia Reike. The refreshment committee appointed was Virginia Wilson, chairman, with Myles Hall, Robert Ebert and Lela Shoenke assisting.

XCHANGE XTRACTS

Quick work is shown by Junior classes in many high schools as they have already chosen their class play and picked the cast.

Discipline in the corridors and the care of many outside activities are very efficiently managed at the University high school in Minneapolis by a body of students called the "Senate."

Seniors Urged to Have Class Pictures Taken

The administration of the Senior class desires to take this means to notify the class that it will be necessary for each member to have their pictures taken at once. The photographers are anxious to have the pictures out of the way in order to make room for the Xmas pictures. All pictures must be finished before December 1st so that the print will be ready for the Brainerdian annual.

"A WEEK'S JOB"

On Monday I pushed out the motah.
 On Tuesday I gave it a clean
 On Wednesday and Thursday a crowd gathered round.
 And exclaimed, "Wot a hawhley machine!"
 On Friday I filled it with petrol—
 And rubbed it all ova with lard
 On Saturday morning it started to rain—
 So I pushed it back into the yard!
 JENNIE HOSTON.

Betty (just home from a vacation in Egypt): "And Auntie, it was so interesting; the tombs and pyramids and things were all covered with hieroglyphics!"
 Aunt Louisa: "Oh, heer! I hope you didn't get any on you, child."

Would-be Suicide: "Don't rescue me. I want to die."

Tommy Koeck: "Well, you'll have to postpone it, I want a life saving medal."

YE EDITOR

During the past two months the Brainerdian staff has been striving earnestly to put out a worth while weekly that will meet the approval of the student body and we are therefore about to print a "Students Voice" column through which the students may give their personal views on school affairs and publications. The staff will gladly receive all criticisms or means of improvement for the weekly paper because with the co-operation of the high school the old motto of a "Bigger and Better Brainerdian" may be upheld.

YE EDITOR.

PEP BAND TO HAVE NEW UNIFORMS

UNIFORMS TO BE IN SCHOOL COLORS

Our high school Pep band is going to have uniforms in the near future. The members will wear a full uniform of blue and white, the school colors.

The boys will wear white trousers with a blue silk stripe and a blue sash. The girls will wear a white skirt with the blue sash. The shirts, capes and caps will be the same. The shirts will be white and the capes will be blue with a bright red lining making a very attractive garment. The caps will be of the over sea type in blue with a white tassel.

Mr. Ellertson, the director, said that the entire uniform will be purchased by the members and funds raised by the band as an organization. Each individual is to purchase his or her own skirt or trousers, the remainder of the uniforms is to be purchased by the band with money it shall raise by entertainments and programs. The uniform, excepting trousers and skirts, will be property of the school to be used by the band in future years. It will be necessary to order about 40 uniforms to fit the entire band and with their new uniforms and a selection of new and popular numbers their first appearance will be a rare treat to the student body.

Elaine Tracy Elected President of Camp Fire

The high school Camp Fire was organized for the year when the opening meeting was held last week at which time the election of officers took place. The following officers were elected: president, Elaine Tracy; vice president, Margaret Nolan; secretary, Marcelle Van Essen; song leader, Colette McCarthy; scribe, Marjorie Lewis.

A hike was planned and was to have been held last Tuesday but on account of the rainy weather it was postponed.

The girls who are going to become fire-makers are beginning to work for their rank now so they may become fire-makers at the Grand Council Fire which will be held the latter part of November.

Frosh, Junior Girls Win in Volleyball

Girls' volleyball tournament began Wednesday with a clash between the Juniors and the Sophomores, the Juniors emerging victorious with a 29 to 24 score.

Freshmen met the Seniors in the fast and furious game Thursday when the study little newcomers met a team with three years experience and defeated them with a 27-16 score. The strength of the Freshmen team promises the Juniors keen competition in the battle for the championship.

The Booster

Wouldn't this old world be better, If the folks we meet would say, "I know something good about you," And treat us just that way?

Instead of this old, old gossip, "Have you heard about so and so?" Why not say something nice about them?

It will make more friends, you know.

Wouldn't life be lots more happy, If the good that's in us all Was the only thing about us, That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't we be more happy, If we praised the good we see? For there's such a lot of goodness In the worst of us and me.

Wouldn't it be nice to practice, That fine way of thinking too? "You know something good about me?"

And—"I know something good about you."

—Virginia Reike.

Mrs. Mary Johnson: "I want to see Mistah Melby, please."
 Office Boy: "Mr. Melby is engaged."
 Mrs. Mary Johnson: "Go long boy. Ah don't want to marry him. Tell him his washday wants huh money."

Miss Taylor: "I will give the next topic to Ray Palmer."
 Margaret Gustafson: "She's not here."

MISS DOROTHY DUNN GIVES HUMOROUS READING AT B I-MONTHLY PROGRAM

SKOOL SKANDEL

I've got it! 'Tis the answer—Dear F. R.:

Be a good girl and remember that "every dog has its day."
 Sincerely,
 DOROTHY DIX.

Muriel Bedal was seen in conversation with a boy Friday.
 We wonder if Ralph Hallquist's mother found those queer marks on his shirt collar. They resembled a pierced heart, and the initials R. H. and either D. G. or R. S. It wasn't quite clear.

Why is Art Hickerson so fastidious lately?
 My, my, as Miss Schow would say, "These little affairs..."

MISS MICHAEL IS SUPERVISING X-RAYS FOR GIRLS

CHRISTMAS SEALS SALES TO MAKE X-RAYS POSSIBLE

Miss Eulah Michael, City and School Nurse, is now at work supervising the X-raying of those High School girls whose Mantoux test showed a positive result last spring.

The work is being conducted by the State Tubercular Hospital at Deerwood, Minnesota. There is no charge for this service as it is entirely paid for by the sale of Christmas seals. If this service was to be performed privately it would cost approximately $10 for each X-ray. Every parent whose child showed a positive reaction to the Mantoux test is urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

About fourteen girls went to Deerwood Monday afternoon to have X-ray pictures taken. There are approximately thirty more girls to go. Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Seifert, Miss Michael and Mrs. Gustafson have contributed the use of their cars for the three or four trips that will be necessary.

Diary for October

Oct. 1—A pep fest was held and we tried out some new yells which proved to be OK.

Oct. 2—Marjorie F. was seen dashing through the halls at 3:30 p. m. We all wondered what made her late.
